

AMERICAN FISHERIES SOCIETY VIRTUAL ANNUAL MEETING SEPTEMBER 14–25 2020

Call for Silent Auction Donations

We are seeking donations of your talents, skills, and passions as auction items for this important fundraiser: experiences, park passes, product donations, tours, and more! The silent auction will run September 14–25 and will be entirely digital.

About the Virtual Annual Meeting

A mix of plenary sessions, engaging panel presentations, live sessions, facilitated topical discussions, and convenient on-demand recordings presented over two weeks. Currently scheduled: 803 papers, 37 symposia, 20 contributed sessions, and 8 poster sessions.

About the American Fisheries Society

Established in 1870, AFS is the oldest and largest organization dedicated to strengthening the fisheries profession, advancing fisheries science, and conserving fisheries resources. Home to 8,000 members, AFS publishes five journals, Fisheries magazine, and grants more than $100,000 annually to support students and early career professionals.

For further information or to contribute, please contact Debby Lehman (dlehman@fisheries.org) or Laura Hendee (lhendee@fisheries.org).

Your donations are tax deductible and important. Funds generated from the silent auction will support AFS' ongoing programs in areas of student travel awards, scholarships, internships, and policy support and outreach.

The American Fisheries Society is a nonprofit organization with IRS 501(c)(3) tax-exempt status. All contributions and donations, including those generated by the auction, are tax-deductible in the manner and to the extent provided by the U.S. Internal Revenue Code. The Federal Tax ID for AFS is 54-0683803.
